Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first-class session, or on the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Cancellation occurs when the student gives written notification of cancellation via the request for change of status on www.pathwayscollege.edu by midnight of the first day of class or the seventh (7th) day after enrollment, whichever is later. All classes are offered at real time. An institution offering a distance educational program where the instruction is not offered in real time shall transmit the first lesson and any materials to any student within seven days after the institution accepts the student for admission.

If the school has given a student any equipment, including books or other materials, the student shall return all items and equipment to the school within 15 days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If the student fails to return any borrowed item in good condition within the 15 day period, then the school may deduct its documented cost from any refund that may be due to the student. Once the student pays for the equipment, books, or any other material, it becomes the student's property to keep without further obligation.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal financial aid program funds.

If the student cancels this agreement, then the school will refund any money that the student has paid, less the non-refundable fees and any deduction for equipment, books or other materials not returned in a timely manner and in good condition. This must take place within 30 days after the notice of cancellation sent by the student is received by the school.

If the program is cancelled by the school or if the student is rejected or is a "no show" (never attended the program or course), then the student will receive a full refund (minus the nonrefundable fees) within 30 days from the scheduled first day of class.

Cancellation must occur prior to the seventh day after enrollment or attendance at the first class session for the first term enrollment period listed on the enrollment agreement.
